

Whether you need a single professional at one location or a team of professionals spanning several locations, we provide a flexible workforce when and where you need it, helping you grow productivity while reducing the costly expenses of recruiting, hiring, training, redeployment and downtime.

Simply put, when you use Ajilon Communications' unique staffing solutions, you can reduce your costs in the following areas:

Payroll Taxes or Unemployment Benefits – With Ajilon Communications associates, you will know your project or hourly wage costs are controlled.

Recruiting Expenses – The cost of recruiting can be enormous. You can eliminate this cost altogether because Ajilon Communications covers all recruiting costs.

Termination Costs – With our just-in-time workforce you can increase or decrease your headcount with just one phone call. And you don't have any severance or unemployment costs. It's as simple as that.

Accounting Costs – With Ajilon Communications associates, you add a powerful workforce but without the administrative costs. That's because Ajilon Communications computes and withholds all required taxes, fees and deductions.

Training Costs – Our people learn on our time, not yours. This means our associates arrive ready and able to work.
